

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AgriSETA Addresses Recent Fraudulent Activities and Scams

Thursday, 18 September 2025 - AgriSETA has become aware of a recent surge in fraudulent activities and scams falsely claiming association with our organisation. We wish to unequivocally state that AgriSETA is in no way associated with the schemes by CreativeMindz, JobsRecruitment, Youth of Tsomo, nor do we endorse or participate in any such activities. These fraudulent operations often involve misrepresentation of our brand, services, or personnel to deceive individuals.

We urge the public to exercise extreme caution and vigilance when encountering any suspicious communication, offers, or requests for personal information that purport to be from AgriSETA or its Employees.

AgriSETA will not be held accountable for any personal loss, financial or otherwise, incurred due to these fraudulent activities. Furthermore, the company explicitly disclaims any liability for misrepresentation made by these unauthorised third parties.

We encourage the public to verify all information by contacting AgriSETA directly through our official channels.

Our legitimate contact information can be found on our official website at www.agriseta.co.za or by calling our front office on 012 301 5600.

We are committed to protecting our stakeholders and the public from deceptive practices and are exploring all available avenues to address such issues.

AgriSETA is an entity of the Department of Higher Education & Training.

Vision | Enabling a skilled, transformed, and prosperous agricultural sector.

Mission | To increase access to relevant skills that is impact driven through strategic partnerships and credible research leading to inclusive economic growth.

Contact:

Mandy Rutgers

Head: Marketing and Communication

Mandy@agriseta.co.za

Tressa Mashao

Marketing & Communication Practitioner

Tressa@agriseta.co.za